Tips for having a fun and memorable Ladies Night Out!

Girls Night In

Sometimes the best fun is had at home! Stepping outside the box and hosting the Ultimate Girls Night In Passion Party can be a real win-win. They are tasteful, educational, and the guests can laugh the night away, learn tips to spice up their love life (and stock up their bedroom “arsenal”) all at the same time! Plus, the bride gets the hostess credit ~ Everybody wins!

Casino Anyone?

If you are looking for something a little different, then why not liven your evening up with a bit of a gamble? Perhaps you and your friends can spend the evening at a casino or even a race track. You will more than likely have all the facilities you want there anyway, restaurants, drinks and so on. Just be sure that you don't take along more than you can afford to lose!

Dance The Night Away

Sometimes you just want to go out and dance the night away. Hire a limo for the night and move from club to club, letting your hair down and just having a great time! Sometimes, there is simply very little that can beat that!

Pamper Palace

If you are looking for a good weekend away with just the girls, why not make it a pampering weekend at a spa. This will help take the bride's mind off the wedding planning for a few days, and you guys will get some good bonding time in together.

In For A Laugh

A night out at the local comedy club is a fantastic way to have a night full of marriage, married sex and mother in law jokes. Be sure to make a booking right in front and let them know in advance that you are there as a bachelorette party.

Karaoke

There is nothing like making a fool of yourself, with your friends and a bit of karaoke. Sing the night away to all your favorite songs, and sipping of a few cocktails. It will be a great way for you all to unwind and relax while having some good clean fun.
